4. Course Description

Course Description	This course studies the multinational enterprise (MNE) and the theoretical approaches that have been formulated to explain the growth and operation of this form of business on an international scale. Recent general theories will be considered in a critical manner to allow judgments to be made on their strengths and limitations.

5. Course Objectives

1. To provide a detailed understanding of the theories of international business, multinational corporations' external and internal environments, and international business strategy
2. To provide an understanding of the challenges and opportunities that multinational corporations face in a global environment
3. To prepare students for career in the international business field

6. Faculty Learning Goals

- Goal 1: Acquisition and internalization of knowledge of the programme discipline
- Goal 2: Application and integration of knowledge
- Goal 3: Inculcating professionalism
- Goal 4: Developing global outlook
- Goal 5: Mastering communication skills
- Goal 6: Cultivating leadership

Assessment Methods	Description	Weight %	Aligned Course Learning Outcomes
A1. Group Project	Each team will be responsible for making presentations of a new foreign investment project. The investment project involves making or selling a specified product or service in a host country. Your team will choose one multinational corporation, one industry, and one host country. Examples of the topics of your presentation include Kweichow Moutai Co., Ltd.'s entry in Switzerland and octopus card in Africa. Students assume the role of international managers and present your analysis and recommendations to the senior management of your company. Your analysis should be focused primarily on organizational and management issues rather than marketing/finance issues. You have to submit the topic of your group project to Teaching Assistant on or before Feb 15 and get approval from your instructor beforehand. No two teams can work on the same topic. To secure your topic, you can submit your topic for approval as soon as your team has made a decision. Presentations Each group is responsible to present twice. Your presentation should be about 15 minutes. Each presentation will be followed by a Q&A session (5-10 minutes). There are no rules for the	40%	1,2,3,4,5 selection of presenter(s). The presentation portion of the grade will be the same for all members of the team. The first group presentation will be held on Mar 1. The second group presentation will be held on Apr 19.

A2. Class participation	You are encouraged to actively participate in all class activities and discussions. Your class participation is crucial to successful learning. Active class participation will not only facilitate your learning process but also make the class discussions lively and exciting. Class participation will be evaluated based on the quantity and quality of an individual's contribution. I will greatly reward students who actively participate in the discussion of cases and role-play activities, make insightful comments and connections to course materials, constructively analyse classmates' arguments, and introduce a unique perspective into a discussion. It is important that you are prepared for the class by having covered the case materials. I may call upon you to make the opening statement describing the facts of a case or to address a specific issue during class discussion. Unexcused absences will affect the participation grade.	20%	1,2,3,4,5
A3. Individual case write-up	You are required to submit one case write-up. You are expected to identify the main issues in the case, to evaluate the alternatives and to make recommendations. Your case write-up should be no more than 5 pages (excluding cover page, tables, figures, appendices, references, and endnotes). I will not read any writing beyond the page limit. The case write-up should be double-spaced and typed in 12-point type with one-inch margins. It is due at 5:00pm, Apr 26. You should upload your case write-up to Moodle. No late assignments will be accepted. The following guiding principles may help you prepare for your case write-up: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-The questions provided at the end of the case help you streamline the issues to be addressed. The case write-up can be built around answering the questions.</li> <li>-You can use the organizing frameworks discussed in class or those from other sources.</li> <li>-You are not required to repeat the case situation in your write-up. The case facts should be used as supporting evidence in your analysis.</li> <li>-You can append tables and figures to support your analysis. All tables and figures should be referred to in the text and relevant to the discussion.</li> </ul>	40%	1,2,3,4,5

A1. Group Project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Focus</li> <li>-Logic</li> <li>-Understanding of topic</li> <li>-Presentation skills</li> <li>-Timing</li> </ul>
A+,A,A-	Content of presentation-The presentation was highly successful at communicating the essential elements of the analysis and conclusions to the audience in a logical manner. -Concepts were thoroughly explained and clarified when necessary. -The presentation demonstrated a deep understanding and comprehension of the topic (theory and practical application). -There was clear evidence of independent and critical thinking. Execution of presentation-The presenter(s) displayed excellent verbal skills and delivered a highly interesting and coherent presentation. -Visual aids were appropriately used and clear. -The presentation was completed within the time limit.
B+,B,B-	Content of presentation-The presentation was successful at communicating the essential elements of the analysis and conclusions to the audience in a logical manner. -Most concepts were thoroughly explained and clarified when necessary. -The presentation demonstrated a sound understanding and comprehension of the topic (theory and practical application). -There was evidence of independent and critical thinking. Execution of presentation-The presenter(s) displayed good verbal skills and delivered an interesting and coherent presentation. -Visual aids were appropriately used and clear. -The presentation was completed within the time limit.
C+,C,C-	Content of presentation-The presentation adequately communicated the essential elements of the analysis and conclusions to the audience in a logical manner. -Most but not all concepts were thoroughly explained and clarified when necessary. -The presentation demonstrated an acceptable level of understanding and comprehension of the topic (theory and practical application). -There was limited evidence of independent and critical thinking. Execution of presentation-The presenter(s) displayed mediocre verbal skills and delivered a somewhat interesting and coherent presentation. -Visual aids were appropriately used and clear. -The presentation was completed within the time limit.
D+,D	Content of presentation-The presentation only covered some basic elements of the analysis and conclusions to the audience in a somewhat logical manner. -Very few concepts were thoroughly explained and clarified when necessary. -The presentation demonstrated very limited level of understanding and comprehension of the topic (theory and practical application). -There was very limited evidence of independent and critical thinking. Execution of presentation-The presenter(s) displayed minimal verbal skills and the presentation lacked in coherence. -Visual aids were somewhat appropriately used but unclear. -The presentation was completed within the time limit.
F	Content of presentation-The presentation failed to address the basic and key issues of the analysis and conclusions. -The presentation did not demonstrate sufficient understanding and comprehension of the topic. Execution of presentation-Verbal skills were inadequate. -Visual aids were inadequately used. -The presentation was not completed within the time limit.
