2. To fulfill the graduation requirement of this degree as specified by the Board of Studies in Business Administration and Law in accordance with UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula, candidates must satisfactorily complete the credits of courses identified by an asterisk (*). Those courses include the following areas of study: English language enhancement (6 credits), Chinese language enhancement (6 credits) and Common Core courses (36 credits), and successful completion of a capstone experience.
3. A pass in both “LLAW1013 Legal research and writing I” and “LLAW2017 Legal research and writing II” (as an integrated course) shall be deemed to satisfy the “English in the Discipline” requirement under UG 5(a) of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula.
4. The Common Core courses are categorized under four Areas of Inquiry (AoI): Scientific and Technological Literacy, Humanities, Global Issues, and China: Culture, State, and Society. Candidates must complete a total of 36 credits, comprising at least one and not more than two courses from each Area of Inquiry with not more than 24 credits of courses being selected within one academic year except where candidates are required to make up for failed credits.
5. The following courses are designated as Faculty Core courses: ACCT1101, ECON1210, FINA1310, and a statistics course as prescribed in the syllabus. Candidates are not required to re-take Faculty Core courses where any of these courses form part of the requirements of a second major offered by the Faculty of Business and Economics, however, candidates must complete an equivalent number of credits of free electives in lieu of the Faculty Core courses.
6. Candidates who opt to pursue the Business stream shall complete four disciplinary courses (24 credits) that constitute one of the following majors in the BBA programme: (i) Human Resource Management (HRM), (ii) Information Systems, (iii) Marketing, or (iv) Wealth Management, or five disciplinary courses for the major in (v) Entrepreneurship, Design and Innovation (EDI)*. Please refer to the Syllabus for the Degree of Bachelor of Business Administration for the specific requirements of individual BBA majors.
7. The courses listed in the syllabus will not necessarily be offered every year; from time to time, depending on the exigencies of staffing, additional courses may be offered. The Faculty of Business and Economics will only offer electives for which sufficient student demand has been expressed in any one year.
8. For courses offered by the Faculty of Business and Economics, the final examination is normally 2 hours in length. Final grading normally will be determined by performance in the final examination (30-60%) and an assessment of coursework (40-70%) except for final project/final papers which will be assessed by 100% coursework.
9. Candidates should take note of any impermissible combinations of majors/minors listed in the document “Major/Minor Programmes offered by FBE” for the year concerned.
10. Candidates are not permitted to enroll in courses where significant portions of the course overlap with each other, or where the courses are mutually exclusive.

* Candidates must undergo a selection process arranged by the Programme Director.
