

SYLLABUSES FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS

These syllabuses apply to candidates admitted to the first year of study of the 4-year curriculum in the academic year 2012-13 and thereafter.

1. Candidates must enroll and attempt examination in not fewer than 240 credits of courses in accordance with the regulations and the syllabuses. In addition, the 240 credits of courses should be completed in the following manner:

UG 5 requirements [54 credits]
Languages*	18 credits
HKU Common Core Curriculum*	36 credits
Major in Economics [72 credits]
- Core courses	60 credits
- Disciplinary electives	12 credits
Free Electives [114 credits]	114 credits
Total credits for degree programme	240 credits

2. To fulfill the graduation requirement of this degree as specified by the Board of the Faculty of Business and Economics in accordance with UG 5 of the Regulations for First Degree Curricula, candidates must satisfactorily complete the credits of courses identified by an asterisk(*). Those courses include the following areas of study: English language enhancement (12 credits), Chinese language enhancement (6 credits) and Common Core courses (36 credits), and successful completion of a capstone experience.
3. The Common Core courses are categorized under four Areas of Inquiry (AoI): Scientific and Technological Literacy, Humanities, Global Issues, and China: Culture, State and Society. Candidates must complete a total of 36 credits, comprising at least one and not more than two courses from each Area of Inquiry with not more than 24 credits of courses being selected within one academic year except where candidates are required to make up for failed credits.
4. The following courses are designated as Faculty Core courses: ACCT1101, ECON1210, FINA1310 and a statistics course, as prescribed in syllabuses. Candidates are not required to re-take Faculty Core courses where any of these courses form part of requirements of a second major or a minor offered by the Faculty of Business of Economics, however, candidates must complete an equivalent number of credits of free electives in lieu.
5. The courses listed in the syllabus will not necessarily be offered every year; from time to time, depending on the exigencies of staffing, additional courses may be offered. The School of Economics and Finance will only offer electives for which sufficient student demand has been expressed in any one year.
6. For courses offered by the School of Economics and Finance, the final examination is normally 2 hours in length. Final grading will be determined by performance in the final examination (30-60%) and an assessment of coursework (40-70%) except for final project/final papers which will be assessed by 100% coursework.
7. Candidates may take a maximum of 102 credits of junior level/Year 1 courses, inclusive of all common core and required language courses, unless otherwise specified in the syllabuses.
8. Candidates are required to take not fewer than 36 credits of senior level courses from those listed in the BEcon syllabus. 24 of the 36 credits are core courses inclusive of ECON2210, ECON2220 and ECON2280 which must be taken in the second or third year of study and ECON4200 (capstone course) which must be taken in the final year of study. The remaining 12 credits may be chosen from the list of economics electives in the syllabuses.

9. Candidates may select up to four courses offered under the syllabuses for the Master of Economics (MEcon) as third or fourth year economics electives, subject to availability and the approval of the Director of the School of Economics and Finance. Each of these MEcon courses carries 6 credits, unless otherwise specified.
10. Candidates should take note of any impermissible combinations of majors/minors listed in “Major/Minor Programmes offered by FBE” on page xx.
11. Candidates are not permitted to enroll in courses where significant portions of the course contents overlap with each other, or where the courses are mutually exclusive. See the list of “Mutually Exclusive Course for FBE Students” on page xx.
12. Each candidate shall be required to take an English Proficiency Test at two different junctures; firstly in Year 1 and secondly in the final or penultimate year of study.
