UNSW In-Person Exchange Fact Sheet

About UNSW

Welcome to UNSW Sydney

We are an internationally acclaimed teaching and research powerhouse, offering exchange students a learning experience packed with academic programs, student activities and educational services.

UNSW Sydney is one of Australia's leading research and teaching universities and one of the top 100 universities in the world. We take pride in the broad range and high quality of our teaching programs. Our teaching gains strength and currency from our research activities, strong industry links and our international nature; UNSW has strong regional and global engagement. We have over 59,000 students and offer an extensive range of undergraduate, postgraduate and research programs.

Located in Sydney, Australia's largest city, the University was established in 1949 and is committed to shaping forward thinking, environmentally conscious and socially engaged students who will make a positive impact in the world. The main UNSW campus is located on a 38-hectare site at Kensington, seven kilometres from the centre of Sydney. Our other major campus is UNSW Paddington. Take our 360 virtual campus tour[1] or review UNSW Sydney: Bring your difference[2] to see what we have to offer!

COVID-19

UNSW continues to monitor the COVID-19 situation and we recommend you are flexible with your plans.

Course information and selection

Course selection

You can search for courses on the UNSW Handbook[3] and you can view instructions [4]on how to identify and search for these courses. When choosing your courses, it is important to be flexible. You can also refer to our Winter Term Course Guide[5] for information on the courses that are expected to run during our Winter Term.

- You must meet any prerequisites for courses. This is assessed at the time of application, and new courses can be submitted   for approval post acceptance.

- You should check your proposed courses are offered in the term you will be on exchange.

- It is important to have back up course options should your preferred courses not be available. Faculties are unlikely to approve timetable clashes. We recommend you submit course approval for all back up courses as early as possible.

- All students are required to enrol in a full-time load each term. Please note It is not possible to overload.

- You should discuss your proposed courses (and back up options) with your home university and have these approved by them in advance.

- You are expected to study with UNSW for the entire duration of your study plan, including all exams and assessments.

- Generally undergraduate students are not able to enrol in graduate courses, but there may be some limited options for Law and some Science and Engineering subjects.

- It is generally not possible for graduate students to enrol in undergraduate courses.

Equitable Learning Services

Equitable Learning Services[6] provide a range of services to students with disabilities, including note takers, classwork support, assistive technology and exam adjustments.

If you receive educational adjustments at your home university, you will need to register with UNSW Equitable Learning Services prior to study commencement to ensure the appropriate services are in put in place by the time you start at UNSW. You will not be registered automatically.

Please note that support services in Australia may be different to the services offered at your home university (for example, adjustments for extra time in exams may be shorter). While at UNSW you will receive the same educational adjustments as local students, and it is best to make enquiries about what services may be available to you before you arrive.

Applications

How to apply

Our application is completely online. You first need to be nominated by your home university (please do not make a direct application through our website). Nomination information will be emailed to your home university separately.

Once nominated, an email will be sent to you with information on how to submit your application. Please check the terms you have been nominated for as changes cannot be made after applications are submitted. You also need to upload the following supporting documents as part of your application by the application deadline. We do not require hard copies of applications.   We send offers and enrolment information after the application deadline.

1. Academic transcript (with English translation, if applicable)

2. ID page of passport. (If you don't have a current passport, please upload a copy of your old passport and email us a copy of their new one when received)

3. Proof of English language[11] proficiency, if applicable.

Deadlines

Tailored Term 1 & Term 1

- Nomination deadline: 5 October

- Application deadline: 15 October

Tailored Term 3 & Term 3

- Nomination deadline: 26 March

- Application deadline: 1 April

Please note all above dates are Sydney time (AEDT). We send offers and visa documentation after the application deadline. It is not possible to change your term selection once your application has been submitted.

Language requirements

UNSW recognizes these countries[12] as English-speaking. If you do not hold a passport for one of the countries as listed, you need to provide proof of your English proficiency by the application deadline. You can do this by providing evidence that you meet one of UNSW's approved[13] [14]criteria[15]. English proficiency is an entry requirement, and we cannot accept students into the Exchange Program without it. Proof of English that does not meet one of the UNSW's approved[16] [17]criteria[18] cannot be accepted.

UNSW accepts English language test scores of 6.5 IELTS or 90 TOEFL (iBT) for Exchange students. You are only required to meet the overall score for IELTS and TOEFL, you do not need to meet each of the subtests. You must have completed the test no more than two years before your intended start date at UNSW.

For prior study conditions and other acceptable criteria please see English language requirements | UNSW Sydney[19]

It is important to check you meet our English requirements before being nominated by your home university. It is too late to sit a test after our application deadline if you don't meet our entry requirements. You should arrange your language tests at least 6 months in advance.

The Australian Government also has requirements for student visas. You must verify and meet any visa requirements.

Grade requirements

You should have equivalent to either a credit average or 3.0 GPA

Housing, living costs & Student Life

On-campus Housing

UNSW affiliated Colleges and Apartments[20] provide high quality accommodation, and you should apply directly to the College or Apartment as early as possible. Please make sure you select the affiliated options when using the above link. On campus accommodation is extremely limited and is not guaranteed even if you apply by the deadline.

[20]https://accommodation.unsw.edu.au/compare

Check out the UNSW Accommodation virtual tour[21].

Off-campus Housing

Most exchange students choose to live off campus and enjoy the beautiful suburbs that surround UNSW. Sydney is a safe city, with public transport connecting the UNSW campuses, beaches, and city centre.

- Resources and advice[22]

- We recommend students arrive 1-2 weeks early to find off campus accommodation. You may wish to book temporary accommodation[23] to allow time to find more permanent housing.

- Off campus accommodation is not be endorsed by UNSW and you should take all precautions to secure safe housing, learn about your rights as a tenant[24].

You should never arrange off-campus accommodation or transfer money from overseas.

Student Accommodation Providers

Sydney has several accommodation providers catering specially to students. These providers are located around Sydney – generally around 20-50 minutes by public transport from the UNSW campus. These options offer high-quality rooms with extra services and Facilities. Options include Iglu[25] and Scape[26]

Approximate living costs

We recommend around AU$10,000 – AU$12,000 per half year and AU$19,000 – AU$23,000 per year for an in-person exchange.   Please note that this is for the basics [27]and does not include holiday travel and entertainment costs.

You may also wish to refer to the Study Australia Cost of Living Calculator (studyaustralia.gov.au)[28] to get an estimate on how much it could cost to have the lifestyle you choose in Australia.

Unless you are contacted with confirmation of a scholarship from UNSW, there are no other available funding opportunities. Students are responsible for funding their own exchange.

Student Life

There is always lot's happening at UNSW and we encourage you to get involved in UNSW student life. Find out more! [29]

Insurance & OSHC

Overseas Student Health Cover

An Australian student visa requires you to have Overseas Student Health Cover[30] (OSHC) for its full duration (most students from Belgium, Norway and Sweden are exempt). OSHC is a government requirement and cannot be waived with off-shore health insurance and/or comprehensive travel insurance.

The UNSW's preferred provider is Medibank. Further instructions are provided upon acceptance.

Working

Student visas allow you to work once you have commenced your course at UNSW. You can work up to 40 hours a fortnight during session and unlimited hours when your course is not in session.

UNSW Employability [31]can assist you with your resume and interview preparation.
