

UNSW In-Person Exchange Fact Sheet

About UNSW

Welcome to UNSW Sydney

We are an internationally acclaimed teaching and research powerhouse, offering exchange students a learning experience packed with academic programs, student activities and educational services.

UNSW Sydney is one of Australia's leading research and teaching universities and one of the top 100 universities in the world. We take pride in the broad range and high quality of our teaching programs. Our teaching gains strength and currency from our research activities, strong industry links and our international nature; UNSW has strong regional and global engagement. We have over 59,000 students and offer an extensive range of undergraduate, postgraduate and research programs.

Located in Sydney, Australia's largest city, the University was established in 1949 and is committed to shaping forward thinking, environmentally conscious and socially engaged students who will make a positive impact in the world. The main UNSW campus is located on a 38-hectare site at Kensington, seven kilometres from the centre of Sydney. Our other major campus is UNSW Paddington. Take our 360 virtual campus tour or review UNSW Sydney: Bring your difference to see what we have to offer!

COVID-19

UNSW continues to monitor the COVID-19 situation and we recommend you are flexible with your plans. Up to date information on the safe return to campus can be found at COVID-19 - UNSW Sydney.

Language of instruction

The language of instruction at UNSW is English.

Course load

You are required to enrol in a full-time load at UNSW. The normal full-time load is 18 units of credit per term and 24 units of credit for tailored terms (3 subjects per term or 4 subjects per tailored term). It is not possible to overload.

Course selection

COURSE SELECTION

You can search for courses on the UNSW Handbook and you can view instructions on how to identify and search for these courses. When choosing your courses, it is important to be flexible.

- You must meet any prerequisites for courses. This is assessed at the time of application, and new courses can be submitted for approval on an ongoing basis.
- You should check your proposed courses are offered in the term you will be on exchange.
- It is important to have back up course options should your preferred courses not be available. Faculties are unlikely to approve timetable clashes. We recommend you submit course approval for all back up courses as early as possible.
- All students are required to enrol in a full-time load each term.
- You are expected to study with UNSW for the entire duration of your study plan, including all exams and assessments.
- Generally undergraduate students are not able to enrol in graduate courses, but there may be some limited options for Law and some Science and Engineering subjects
- It is generally not possible for graduate students to enrol in undergraduate courses.

Equitable Learning Services

Equitable Learning Services provide a range of services to students with disabilities, including note takers, classwork support, assistive technology and exam adjustments.

If you receive educational adjustments at your home university, you will need to register with UNSW Equitable Learning Services prior to study commencement to ensure the appropriate services are in place by the time you start at UNSW. You will not be registered automatically.

Please note that support services in Australia may be different to the services offered at your home university (for example, adjustments for extra time in exams may be shorter). While at UNSW you will receive the same educational adjustments as local students, and it is best to make enquiries about what services may be available to you before you arrive.

While most courses are open to exchange students with the required academic background, some courses are restricted or not available to exchange students.

- Exchange students are limited to taking one online course only
- As courses in the Winter Term are limited and are generally electives, we recommend you are flexible

Term dates

You can view the Academic Calendar for Study Abroad and Exchange and Key dates for term dates and important information.

You are required to study with UNSW for the entire session and exam period. Your personal exam timetable will be released mid term and you should not make travel arrangements until you have received your exam timetable.

Orientation

All Exchange students are required to attend a compulsory exchange orientation according to their start term. It is normally held the week before Term starts. Details will be provided closer to the time.

How to apply

Our application is completely online. You should first be nominated by your home university (please do not make a direct application through our website). Nomination information will be emailed to your home university separately.

Once nominated, an email will be sent to you with information on how to submit your application. You need to upload the following supporting documents as part of your application by the application deadline. We do not require hard copies of applications. We send offers and enrolment information after the application deadline.

1. Academic transcript (with English translation, if applicable)
2. ID page of passport
3. Proof of English language proficiency, if applicable

Deadlines

Tailored Term 1 & Term 1

- Nomination deadline: 5 October
- Application deadline: 15 October
- Term selection/length of stay deadline: 29 October

Tailored Term 3 & Term 3

- Nomination deadline: 26 March
- Application deadline: 1 April
- Term selection/length of stay deadline: 10 April

We send offers and visa documentation after the application deadline. It is not possible to change your term selection after the deadline.

Language requirements

If English is not your first language, you will need to provide proof of your English proficiency at time of application. You can do this by providing evidence that you meet one of UNSW's approved criteria. This is currently 6.5 IELTS or 90 TOEFL (iBT) for Exchange students. You are only required to meet the overall score for IELTS and TOEFL, you do not need to meet each of the subtests. For prior study conditions and other acceptable criteria please see <https://www.unsw.edu.au/english-requirements-policy>.

It is important to check you meet our English requirements before being nominated by your home university. It is too late to sit a test after our application deadline if you don't meet our entry requirements. You should arrange your language tests at least 6 months in advance.

The Australian Government also has requirements for student visas. You must verify and meet any visa requirements.

Grade requirements

You should have equivalent to either a credit average or 3.0 GPA

On-campus Housing

UNSW affiliated Colleges and Apartments provide high quality accommodation and you should apply directly to the College or Apartment as early as possible. Please make sure you select the affiliated options when using the above link. On campus accommodation is extremely limited and is not guaranteed even if you apply by the deadline.

Check out the UNSW Accommodation virtual tour.

Off-campus Housing

Most exchange students choose to live off campus and enjoy the beautiful suburbs that surround UNSW. Sydney is a safe city, with public transport connecting the UNSW campuses, beaches, and city centre.

- Resources and advice
- We recommend students arrive 1-2 weeks early to find off campus accommodation. You may wish to book temporary accommodation to allow time to find more permanent housing

You should never arrange off-campus accommodation or transfer money from overseas.

Approximate living costs

We recommend around AU$9,000 – AU$11,000 per half year and AU$18,000 – AU$22,000 per year for an in-person exchange. Please note that this is for the basics and does not include holiday travel and entertainment costs.

Unless you are contacted with confirmation of a scholarship from UNSW, there are no other available funding opportunities. Students are responsible for funding their own exchange.

Social Activities

There are fee-paying social activities during the term that exchange students can participate in. Students are also encouraged to participate in other UNSW activities.

Overseas Student Health Cover

An Australian student visa requires you to have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for its full duration (most students from Belgium, Norway and Sweden are exempt). OSHC is a government requirement and cannot be waived with off-shore health insurance and/or comprehensive travel insurance.

The UNSW's preferred provider is Medibank. Further instructions are provided upon acceptance.

Working

Student visas allow you to work once you have commenced your course at UNSW. You can work up to 40 hours a fortnight during session and unlimited hours when your course is not in session.

UNSW Employability can assist you with your resume and interview preparation.

UNSW transcripts

An official transcript will be sent to you digitally through My eQuals at the end of your exchange, after results are released, that you can share with your home institution.

See Grade Definitions and Comparing grading systems for details on our grading system.

Transcripts for UNSW students

For Exchange Partners who send transcripts for UNSW students electronically, please send them to toc@unsw.edu.au
