

UNIVERSITY OF NAVARRA

School of Economics & Business

FACT SHEET
25-26

The School of Economics and Business was founded in 1987 as a reference quality institution. We focus on academic and research excellence, broad internationalization, and memorable student experience to cultivate "economics with a human face," as it was our first Dean's desire. Our program aims to prepare you for the challenges and opportunities of today's world. Your participation and involvement are essential to develop our mission. You are the protagonist of your training.

"Add/Drop Period" during the first two weeks upon arrival.

TRANSCRIPTS OF RECORDS

The transcripts of records will no longer be sent directly to the home university coordinator by our exchange office. Instead, the students will now be responsible for requesting their transcript to be sent via the MIUNAV online portal to them and to their home university coordinators.

LANGUAGES

INSTITUTION'S LANGUAGE

The primary language of the University of Navarra is Spanish. However, as we offer bilingual programs to our students, there is a wide range of courses taught in English: around 50 courses per academic year.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Students must provide proof of their language level. An official test score or a letter from the home university verifying the level is accepted. The certificate needs to be provided for the language the courses will be taken (if only one language, only its corresponding certificate, and for both languages, both certificates).

- For English classes - B2 level
- For Spanish courses- B2 level

SPANISH CLASSES

The School offers Spanish courses free of charge for non-Spanish-speaking students that can be taken throughout the semester in parallel with courses.
