Incoming Student Fact Sheet 2025/26

Next Stop York

York is an internationally recognised university with a reputation for quality, situated on a beautiful parkland campus close to one of Britain's most historic cities, one of the best cities in the UK to live and visit. We place an emphasis on small class sizes, personal attention and guidance, league tables regularly place us as one of the top UK universities.

- Full integration in regular degree programme modules
- A personal academic supervisor to support you and your studies
- An academic transcript at the end of your studies
- A lively and stimulating environment
- Academic study in one or more departments (timetable allowing)
- Study periods of one semester or the full academic year
- Academic credit for modules to the equivalent of 60 credits per semester
- College membership and access to a wide range of extra-curricular activities

University of York campus

The University of York has a lively, cosmopolitan campus with its own shops, banks, bars and restaurants, making it an exciting place to live and work, with everything you need close at hand. Our campus is compact, easy to get around and close to the city centre and has a safe, friendly atmosphere.

The campus occupies two sites: Campus West and Campus East. These are characterised by large lakes, landscaped parkland and lots of student activity.

Our ongoing investment in new colleges, teaching and learning space, laboratories and research facilities means it has never been a better time to join the University of York!

Application procedures

Students applying to York should have completed one year of undergraduate study and be of good academic standing. Students can apply to study in up to two academic schools or departments, but need to be majoring or have a high proportion of their credits in the subject area of their main 'parent' department at York. We ask that students from partner universities are nominated by their home university to be offered a chance to join our pre-application webinars.

Please apply using the online application form for Visiting Students:
