Exams

Each semester is followed by two individual exam periods referred to as Moed 'A' and 'B', which run for approximately three weeks each. Students are automatically scheduled to take exams on the date of the Moed 'A'.

However, where the student is not able to attend the exam on the scheduled date or where the student is unsatisfied with his/her initial result, then the student is able to re-sit a second version of the exam on the date of the Moed 'B'. Students who failed the Moed 'A' are automatically rescheduled to retake the exam on the Moed 'B' date.

Exams Abroad

In exceptional circumstances, exchange students can take their final exams abroad.

A request for an Exam Procedures form must be sent to the student exchange office, filled out by the student and returned up to one (1) month prior to departure.

If approved by the home institution, arrangements will be made to take the final exams at the student's home institution (with a proctor – at the discretion of the home institution).

Housing

Reichman University cannot guarantee student housing on campus for exchange students. Please note – rooms in the dormitories for exchange students are extremely limited with only 10 rooms available for full-year exchange students. Therefore placement is subject to availability on a first-come, first-serve basis.

We highly recommend for our exchange students to look at great housing alternatives offered in the Herzliya and Tel Aviv area. Students may choose to look independently for other non-university living arrangements (housing suggestions will be included in the acceptance package).
