Tips on adding posts on e-Portfolio

- Allow “Public” or “Friends” to see your posts, so that they can also share their comments with you!

The screenshot displays two posts on the e-Portfolio. The first post, by Judy Chan, is titled "Elderly visit" and has a privacy setting dropdown menu open, showing options for "Public", "Friends Only", and "Only Me". A red box highlights the privacy icon in the top right of the post. The second post, by Chan Wai Shan, is titled "Ocean Park visit" and features a photo of people in costumes. A red box highlights the "Your comment" input field below the photo.

- Expand your network on e-Portfolio by adding your fellow classmates and Faculty as “Friend”

The screenshot shows the navigation bar of the e-Portfolio. The "Add Post" button is highlighted, and a dropdown menu is open, showing options: "Address Book", "Contact List", and "Add Friend".
