

CUE Guidelines for SIS

You must enroll in the course “CAES1000 Core University English” (CUE) in either the first or second semester of your first year of study unless you have been officially granted exemption from / advanced standing for CUE (Please check with your home Faculty in relation to the criteria and application procedures for CUE exemption / advanced standing). If you are in the process of applying to be exempted from the course, you should complete the necessary application procedures as early as possible. You are advised to enroll in one of those classes offered in the second semester if the application process for exemption / advanced standing for CUE is not completed by the end of August 2023; if you are enrolled in a class in the first semester, please attend all the sessions of the class as scheduled and submit all the assignments as required until your application for CUE exemption / advanced standing is successful.

Enrollment Arrangements

You must sign up for a CAES1000 class during the course enrollment period, i.e. August 17, 2023 (10:00 am) - August 24, 2023 (4:00 pm).

Each CAES1000 class has a quota of 20 and the Student Information System (SIS) approves students' enrollment requests by auto-balloting. Thus, there is no guarantee that you will be allowed to enroll in the class you have selected.

Please check your course selection results periodically, and if you fail to enroll in your selected class, please choose another timeslot until you can enroll in a class successfully. If you don't sign up for any CAES1000 class during the course enrollment period, the SIS system will automatically assign you a class randomly after the course enrollment period ends. Please check with your home Faculty on your status if you believe you have been granted exemption / advanced standing but have been assigned a CAES1000 class subsequently.

You can change your CAES1000 class freely during the add/drop period in the first and second semester (i.e. August 31 (10:00 am) - September 14, 2023 (4:00 pm) for the first semester, and January 15 (10:00 am) - January 29, 2024 (4:00 pm) for the second semester (provisional)). Please attend sessions of your original class until your application for class change has been approved. The SIS system will perform random class assignment to those who have attained Level 3 or Level 4 in HKDSE English Language, or equivalent, and do not have any CUE course enrollment after the end of the add/drop period. You can no longer change your CUE enrollment after the above-mentioned deadline. Please refer to the course video <https://youtu.be/sSA6oqQXYsY> and the course website at <https://learning.hku.hk/caes1000/> for more details of the course and the procedures of changing class groups at this stage.

Students Seeking Applications for Advanced Standing / Exemption

For exemption criteria and application procedures, please refer to the section below. Eligible students will be informed of application details by the Faculty Office directly.

If your exemption / advanced standing application result is not available by the end of August 2023, you should enroll in one of those classes offered in the second semester. Or else, you will be auto-enrolled in a class in the first semester and are expected to attend all the sessions of class as scheduled and submit all the assignments as required until the exemption / advanced standing result is granted.
